

My Own Dear Family,

We have had some new family members this year. We realize our gain is your loss. We treasure each one.

A scripture I always loved is Isaiah 26:3-4:

You will keep in perfect peace him whose mind is steadfast, because he trusts in You. Trust in the Lord forever for the Lord, the Lord, is the Rock eternal.

There isn't much new going on here. Someone gave me some books to read that I enjoyed very much. One was the book "Heaven is Real" – and I cannot say that I enjoyed the other one, "23 Minutes in Hell". If you get a chance, read both of those books. They are very informative.

When there isn't much to write about, you can always write about the weather..... We always have perfect weather here! The Sun is always bright.

It seems to me that you have a good number attending today. I hope you enjoy the sights of Lititz. It never seemed right not to have the preacher-man pointing out the sights. I think they called him "Tine", for Tiny since he was the short twin. I hope the new members enjoy the sights in Lititz, and come again!

Speaking of seeing the sights – I can't hardly wait to show you around Heaven!

I must hurry. The little angels are getting ready to sing. I'm to meet Charlotte there.

Charlotte sends her love....
Love, Joseph
